The End of an Era

Today has demonstrated how quickly the mood can change in schools and in the country. The back to school feelgood bubble was abruptly punctured by the news of the passing of Her Royal Highness, Queen Elizabeth II. To mark this sad occasion, each teacher spoke to their class about this great loss to the nation. Teachers ended the discussion by observing a minutes silence, as a mark of respect, and reflection at 11am. As a school we will be celebrating the life of her Majesty in key stage one reflecting on her Platinum Jubilee, and also link her reign to key events in their lives in key stage two. This will be in addition to our school observing the period of national mourning. Time will be allowed for discussion about the impact of Her Majesty's passing on their lives, as well as the nation, as required. May she rest in peace.

Reminder

Breakfast, after school clubs and music lessons all start next week. You would have been notified before we broke up for the summer if your child has a place in a club/requested to learn a musical instrument.

Star Of The Week Awards

Star of the Week Assemblies will be starting again next week.

You will be notified through ParentMail if your child has been awarded a certificate and invited along to attend the assembly on a Monday or Tuesday afternoon at 2.30pm

Friends of CHPS

Our AGM will be held on Monday 12th September, at the school. Please come along at 8pm and find out the dates for the forthcoming events, and discuss how you might be able to help.

We are always keen for new ideas and feedback on things we have done, so please come along.

Amazon Smile

Have you connected your Amazon Account to Amazon Smile where you will then automatically earn money for the school on orders you place? If you are unsure on how to do this, you can find details in the Friends Section of the School Website.
